

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A POLICY PRO: BE IN THE KNOW WITH EXPANDED TRANSCRIPTS

Learn how Pros like Jeremy Nicholson use Pro's suite of features, including our enhanced library of transcripts, legislative tracking, and appropriations tracking to organize their work better and push forward winning policy.

08:30AM

Open the POLITICO Pro dashboard and read up on recent news and movement on any legislation that you are tracking. Read Pro's Day Ahead newsletter to get a rundown on the day's congressional schedule and details on upcoming committee hearings.

10:00AM

The Senate Appropriations Committee (SAP) has a congressional hearing for one of the 12 annual spending bills.

12:00PM

The transcript of the SAP hearing is now available in Pro's Document Drawer. Read through the transcript and add it to your 'Spending Bills' Project so that you can access it later and keep your work organized.

03:00PM

Check the Appropriations Tracker to see if there has been any movement on the bill - it is now waiting on Initial Passage after the Committee stage.

04:00PM

Look the bill up in the Legislative Compass and save it to your 'Spending Bills' Project so you will get alerted of any movements in the next few days and make sure that any lobbying groups involved get the spending levels right away.

05:00PM

Head out for the day and grab drinks at the Hay-Adams with peace of mind that you'll be alerted of any crucial changes for your work.
